Set in a gloriously restored 17th-century palazzo in the heart of the capital's historic center, Elizabeth Unique Hotel is a hive of sophisticated design and international allure. Nobu Hotel Shoreditch, located in London's vibrant East End neighborhood, celebrates the city's multiculturalism and its status as a world culinary capital. Paris' prestigious 7th arrondissement is home to Le Cinq Codet, housed within a 1930 former France Telecom building and masterfully restored by acclaimed designer Jean-Philippe Nuel. Cugo Gran Macina Grand Harbour completes the European update. The hotel is set against a backdrop of historical fortress walls in the fortified city of Senglea in the southeastern region of the Mediterranean island of Malta. Upping the ante in North America, Troutbeck—an enchanting private estate and country retreat—is situated in the bucolic hamlet of Amenia. The hotel is surrounded by 45 secluded acres of lush gardens, bisected by two flowing bodies of water, and is a hotspot for those craving a high-minded respite. And finally, to Asia, where Hotel Bocage, in Thailand's original high-society beach resort of Hua Hin, just two and half hours from Bangkok, stands as a reverent homage to both nature and structure. Tokyo is where this chapter ends, in the colorful Shibuya district, where Trunk Hotel combines Tokyo's tradition and trends to create a 'made in Japan' experience.

Le Cinq Codet – Paris, France

Le Cinq Codet

Showcasing unique, graphic architecture—envision the prow of an ocean liner rising above traditional Haussmann buildings—Le Cinq Codet presents 67 rooms that each evoke an artistic loft experience.

Cugo Gran Macina Grand Harbour - Senglea, Malta

Cugó Gran Macina Grand Harbour

Originally built in 1554, the landmark structure that now houses the hotel's expansive 21 suites—all with unobstructed views of a magnificent harbor—is home to high-vaulted ceilings and an amazing rooftop.

For a symbiotic mix of Old World and New, the design gurus at Daaa Haus transformed the hotel's historical aspect through an abundant and creative use of unique lighting, tufted wool rugs, Scandinavian pieces, and bespoke Italian sofas and beds.
