Here's your chance to journey to the end of the Earth. Well, almost. Experiential travel company The Q Experiences is setting out on a journey to Antarctica for the third time around. The 14-day cruise embarks on its journey in Ushuaia, journeys through the temperamental Drake Passage and tabular icebergs of Neko Bay and Paradise Bay to reach the icy continent. Once docked, you can wander through unexplored territories on foot, witness remote wilderness and have close encounters with humpback whales and the largest colony of Chinstrap penguins in the southernmost tip of the Atlantic Ocean, the Wendell Sea. You also get a chance to explore a 1950s museum dedicated to life on the bay and shop at a little store right in the middle of nowhere!

Take to the sea on The Majestic Explorer, a hand-crafted luxury yacht designed by the French virtuoso
